Ambulant peddlers and hawkers and movable stalls either along a public road or in a marketplace, as they do not have a fixed business location, are not considered as establishments. Similarly, open stalls in shopping centers, malls and markets are not considered establishments as they do not have permanency of business location. Individual professionals, technical workers or craftsmen who do not maintain fixed offices or shops are also excluded.

Industry Sections typically refer to broad categories or divisions of establishments within the economy that derives major income or revenue.

Vital acts and events are the births, deaths, fetal deaths, marriages, and all such events that have something to do with an individual's entrance and departure from life together with the changes in civil status that may occur to a person during his lifetime. Recording of these events in the civil register is known as vital or civil registration and the resulting documents are called vital records.
